

JEFFREY L. BELL, M.D., F.A.C.P.

PRESENT POSITION:

- Medical Director 1992 - present
Dialysis Clinic, Inc.
Albany, Georgia
- Partner, SWGA Nephrology Clinic, P.C. 1992 - present
Private Practice of Nephrology

PAST ACADEMIC RANK AND POSITION:

- Attending Nephrologist 1987-1991
Department of Internal Medicine
Naval Hospital San Diego
- Assistant Clinical Professor 1987-1991
Clinical Faculty (non-salaried)
Department of Internal Medicine
University of California San Diego

EDUCATION:

- Undergraduate: Vanderbilt University
BA cum laude, 1975
- Medical School: University of Miami
M.D., 1981
- Internship: Naval Regional
Medical Center
San Diego, CA 1981-82
- Residency: Naval Hospital
San Diego, CA 1983-85
- Fellowship: University of California San Diego
(Joint Program) and Naval Hospital San Diego, CA 1985-87

BOARD CERTIFICATION:

- 1981 National Board of Medical Examiners
- 1985 American Board of Internal Medicine
- 1987 American Board of Internal Medicine
Subspecialty Nephrology

MEDICAL LICENSURE:

- Georgia 34539

HONORS/AWARDS:

- U.S. Navy Achievement Medal 1983
- U.S. Navy Commendation Medal 1991
- Resident Aequanimitas Award 1985
- Fellow, American College of Physicians 1990

MILITARY SERVICE:

- Commander, United States Navy
- 1981-82 Naval Regional Medical Center, San Diego
- 1982-83 Medical Officer, USS Truxtun CGN35
- 1983-91 Naval Hospital, San Diego

EDUCATION-JOURNALS:

- 1989 Scientific Reviewer, Kidney International

INSTITUTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIVITIES:

- 1987-91 Divisional Quality Assurance Representative
- 1990-91 Member, Internal Medicine Quality Assurance Committee
- 1995-96 Chief of Medicine, Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP AND SOCIETIES:

- 1983-92 American Medical Association
- 1985- American College of Physicians
- 1987- National Kidney Foundation
- 1988- International Society of Nephrology
- 1998- Renal Physicians Association

PRESENTATIONS AT NATIONAL MEETINGS:

- 1987 American Society of Nephrology Annual Meeting, Washington, D.C.
Evidence against heteroporosity model of peritoneal transport.
- 1988 American Society of Nephrology Annual Meetin, San Antonio, Texas.
Anaphylatoxin generation as a function of dialysis membrane type, blood flow rate, and membrane C3 binding.
- 1989 American Society of Nephrology Annual Meeting, Washington, D.C.
Intra- and interdialytic generation of tumor necrosis factor and interleukin-1 by various dialysis membranes.

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Biocompatibility of artificial membranes

RESEARCH GRANTS:

- 1987-91 Principal investigator, Health Sciences Education and Training Command,
U.S. Navy Research Grant 88-16-2327-00

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

PUBLICATIONS-JOURNALS:

- Bell JL, Leypoldt JK, Frigon RP, Henderson LW: Hydraulically induced convective solute transport across the rabbit peritoneum. Kidney Int 38: 19-27, 1990
- Bell JL, Ward DM: Leukapheresis in hyperleukocytic leukemias. 1990

PUBLICATIONS-ABSTRACTS:

- Bell JL, Leypoldt JK, Frigon RP, Henderson LW: Heteroporosity model of peritoneal transport is not supported by hydraulically driven convective transport. Kidney Int 33: 243, 1988.

- Bell JL, Henderson LW:
Anaphylatoxin mass generated by cuprophane membrane is not influenced by blood flow rate. Kidney Int 35: 240, 1989.
- Bell JL, Henderson LW: Tumor necrosis factor alpha and interleukin-1 beta are highly correlated during acute hemodialysis. Kidney Int 37: 288, 1990.